

The 2008 Golden Hour Ball

The 2008 Golden Hour Ball presented by Chrysler was a spectacular success.

After a year in hiatus, the Life Support Committee pulled out all stops to build upon previous events, building awareness of trauma and raise much-needed funds for The Alfred's Emergency and Trauma Centre.

This year, the Golden Hour Ball was held in the enormous ballroom at Peninsula, Central Pier at Docklands. It was attended by almost 500 guests who were treated to a sumptuous three course meal created by head chef Matt Wilkinson of Circa the Prince.

Guests were greeted on arrival by a giant golden butterfly, which fluttered throughout the venue that was brilliantly themed with gold accents. Channel Nine hosts Tim Campbell and Georgia Sinclair were on hand to comper the night, which included a buffet of entertainment from Kate Ceberano, Latin dancing and house favourites, De Ja Vu.

The Golden Hour Ball wouldn't be possible without the generosity of its sponsors: Chrysler Australia, Atalntic Group, Moorilla, Kozminsky, Avantage, Jellis Craig, ShowFX, DeJaVu and Talent Solutions.

