

AlfredHealth

2016-17: A rewarding and challenging year

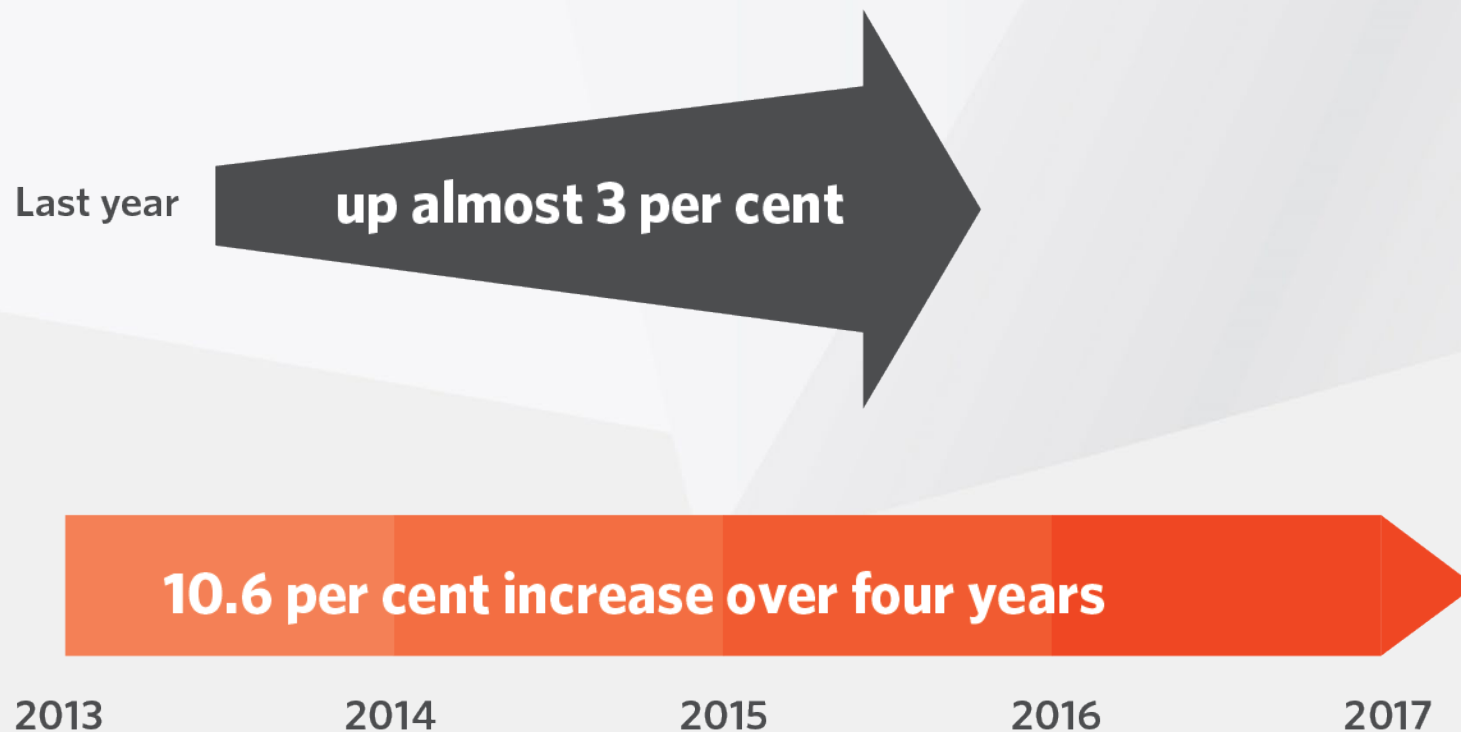

A growing health service

Our emergency trauma and critical care capability was needed more than ever – Bourke St incident, Jan 2017

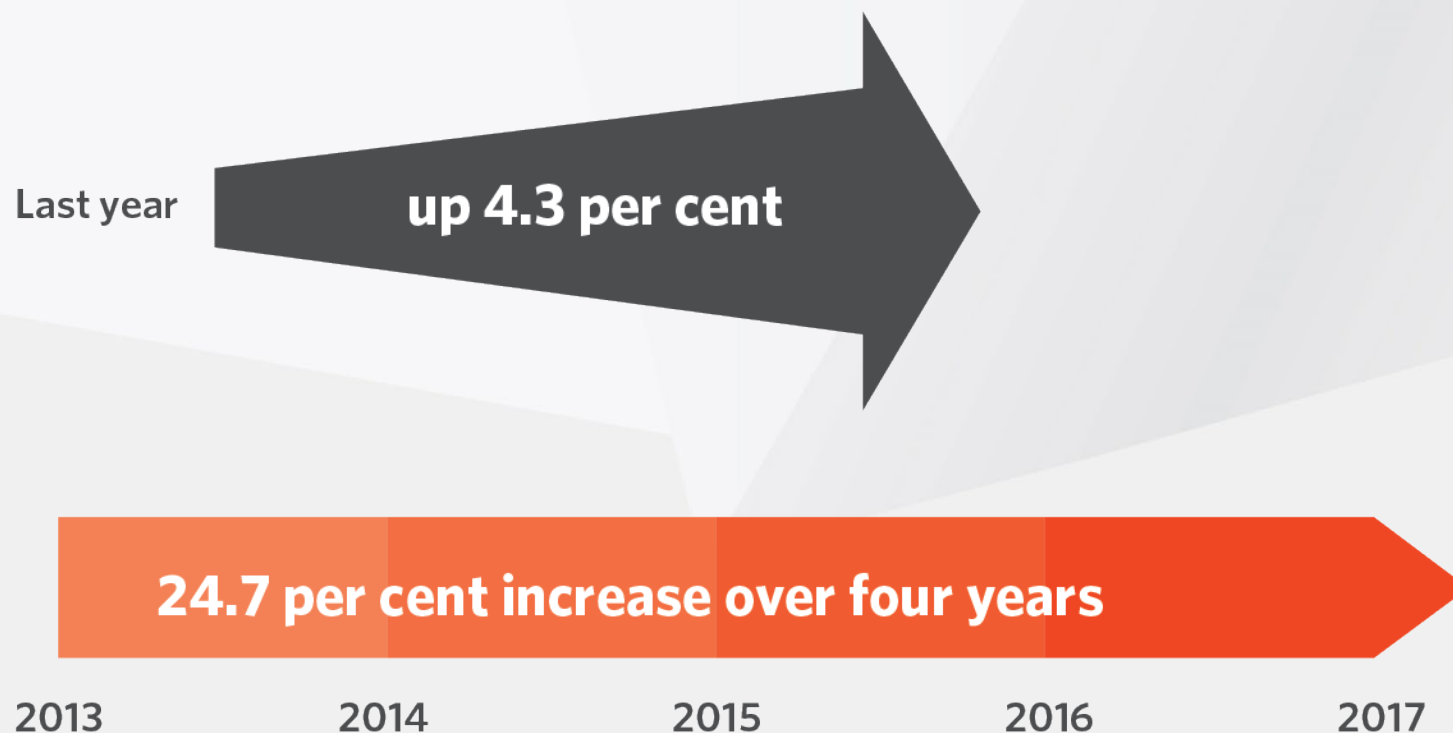

Emergency care

Alfred Emergency Department presentations

Emergency care

Sandringham Emergency Department presentations (including Urgent Care Centre at Sandringham)

Paediatric care

Significant spike in children visiting the Emergency Department at Sandringham

8 per cent increase over year

Consistent 5 to 10 per cent increase in paediatric presentations each month

14

Statewide services

Leading major trauma service with Australasia's largest, most acute ICU

Growth in statewide services

Trauma figures have increased year on year

High transplant rates

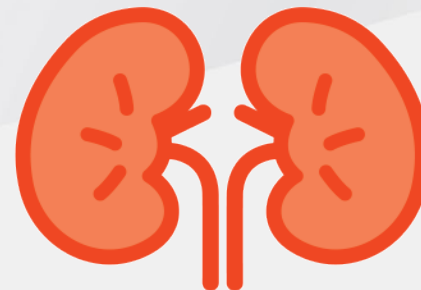

Lung transplants
(93 adult and three paediatric)

Heart transplants

Stem cell transplants for cancer patients 47 allogeneic (donated cells) and 67 autologous (own cells)

Kidney transplants

Leading centre for acute cardiac care

Growth in cardiology admissions

2012-13

Increase in VADS

More heart failure cases

VAD

Mechanical pump

Alfred one of four centres Australia-wide to implant VADs

Elective waitlist patients

Percentage of patients treated within clinically recommended times (Alfred Health) – 97.4%

Consistently over 90 per cent for five years

Caring for all Victorians at their most vulnerable

Rewarding the 'little things that matter' to our patients and families

Patient feedback

Patient Experience Survey (PES)

Discovering the next generation of care through research

Research breakthroughs

$90 million for AMREP researchers in external competitive research funding

Great care through great teams

I have a right to a safe workplace

Violence and verbal abuse will not be tolerated here.

Supporting our staff through zero tolerance to aggression

Paying greater attention to our staff wellbeing

Our staff are committed to caring for their community

Improving the lives of our patients and their families, our communities and humanity

AlfredHealth