Important clinic location update

The High Risk Foot Service is moving to Building N: Alfred Lane House

Due to important infrastructure works at The Alfred, the High Risk Foot Service is moving.

From 30 November 2026, the High Risk Foot Service will be located at Building N: Alfred Lane House.

Building N: Alfred Lane House is located at The Alfred Hospital site. It is around 50 metres from the hospital main entrance or 220 metres from The Alfred visitor car park.

See the reverse side of this flyer for a map.

Patients will continue to receive quality care from our new location. If you have any questions, feel free to ask our staff.
